

San Diego City Attorney CASEY GWINN

---

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 10, 2001

CONTACT: Jim Chapin, Deputy City Attorney, or
Maria Velasquez, Press Secretary: 235-5725

F STREET BOOK STORES ORDERED CLOSED *CITY ATTORNEY GRANTED PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Two communities will soon be rid of adult book stores. Judge Richard Haden granted the City Attorney's request for a preliminary injunction and ordered the closure of two F Street Bookstores, located at 3112 Midway Drive in Midway and 4626 Albuquerque Street in Pacific Beach.

The injunction was sought in the City's breach of contract action filed against F Street Corporation for their failure to honor a 1993 Settlement Agreement. That Agreement was entered into after F Street sued the City for revoking an erroneously issued permit which allowed them to open these adult bookstores in violation of the City's zoning laws. In the Agreement, F Street promised to close these two stores on February 1 (Midway) and June 1 (Pacific Beach) of this year.

"Citizens for Community Values of San Diego" is pleased that the City Attorney of San Diego is continuing his diligent effort to hold the sexually oriented businesses in our community accountable. It is frustrating when these businesses continue to manipulate the legal system to avoid timely compliance with signed agreements and disregard community concern about the health and safety problems they cause," said Executive Director Gina Holloway.

###